Words from the Principal

On my cruise for the last 3 months, I miss all the students, staff and teachers. In my absence, our staff has communicated with me frequently sending the assembly handout's for review as well as the recipes for the cooking classes. I am grateful for all the excellent work of our team.

Our Annual Chinese New Year Banquet was very successful. We had many guests. We are proud our school shares the Chinese Culture by hosting events like these.

Another event you will want to add on your calendar is the upcoming D6 Night Market for those interested in seeing an Asian night market. The Chinese school is a proud community partner.

Being gone so long I miss a lot of things like the community events, the school, the people and home. Although, this trip is very relaxing and something my mind and body needed, I am anxious to be home.

I will be back the first week of July and hope to share my experiences with you. Wishing you all good health & enjoy your Chinese studies.

Sincerely,
Sally Wong Avery
Principal

Chinese School of San Diego

The Chinese School would like to remind students, teachers and parents the Final Examination is rapidly approaching which is May 23rd 2015 as well as the Commencement Ceremony on June 6, 2015.

We would like to welcome Su Dong & Ruby Mo the newest teachers to join us. Su Dong teaches the Mandarin Children's Beginning class as she replaces Liza Zhong. Ruby Mo teaches the Cantonese Teens Beginning class, replacing Alex Wong.

Every year at this time we hire new teachers for the upcoming year. If you know of anyone that is interested in teaching at the Chinese School, please have them contact the school at (858) 565-8008.

We would like to remind everyone of the following school rules:

- No students are allowed in the kitchen, unless they are attending a cooking class.
- Keep the school clean. This includes the playground, classrooms, restrooms and the kitchen. We stress this because of activities that happen after the Chinese School is over and because of the preschool that comes in the following Monday.
- There is no running in the school, especially indoors. There are too many valuable artifacts that cannot be replaced.
- Children cannot leave their teachers sight and school unless accompanied by their parent or guardian.

Chinese School Cooking Classes

From last year's school survey many students said cooking class was their favorite extracurricular activity. This year we have opened more opportunities for classes to learn Chinese cooking.

The teachers and students have been very enthusiastic with lessons ranging from fried rice to kung pao chicken, the students enjoy learning many new dishes.

Chinese New Year Banquet

The Chinese School of San Diego kicked off the Chinese New Year festivities on February 8, 2015. Over 400 guests attended this year's Chinese New Year Banquet held at Jasmine Seafood Restaurant.

This celebration also serves as our school's major fundraiser and also a great opportunity for the community to celebrate the Chinese New Year.

The God of Fortune along with the CCBA Lucky Lion Dancers kicked off the banquet.

The audience was entertained by magician Anthony Hernandez. We capped off the night with the announcement of the grand prize drawing winner. The prize this year was a trip for two to Hawaii.

Happy Easter

About Our School

Chinese School of San Diego aims to provide a well rounded program of studies of the Chinese language and its cultures. The program emphasizes the development of fluency in Chinese listening, speaking, reading, writing, translation and culture.

These are developed with a broad, activity based approach. Students at CSSD develop a keen understanding of and appreciation for China, its language, history, culture, festivals and traditions.

We welcome all students ranging from beginners to more advanced learners. Our students come to our school for many reasons – to learn the Chinese language, about Chinese heritage, or appreciate Chinese culture. We think you'll agree that our program is fun and educational.
