Assembly Topics & Guest Speakers

This semester was very good regarding the assembly topics and guest speakers including presentations from the Principal presenting on 'Chinese Candy'; Vice Principal presented 'How to Stay Motivated Learning Chinese' also 'Chop Sticks'; Sally Wong-Avery presented 'Double Ten'.

Our guest speaker this semester was Glen Brodowski who spoke to the students on his 'personal decisions' and 'experience' speaking Chinese in the business world. This is the second year Glen presented because the students and teachers are inspired and motivated by a fully Chinese bi-lingual non-Chinese speaker.

Other topics that were presented were the 'Moon Festival'; 'Chinese Comic Strip Artists'; 'Mapo Tofu'; 'Silk Road'; and 'King of Pop Jay Chou'.

Cooking Classes

Cooking class has always scored high in previous surveys as an extra-curricular activity. One of the responsibilities for the teachers is to assign their classes on the cooking schedule. Students learn about Chinese culture and cooking method behind the dish.

This semester classes were taught how to make homemade boba; tofu; fried rice; green onion pancakes and Chinese chive pockets.

Chinese School Annual Food & Toy Drive

On November 4th, we kicked off our 5th Annual Food and Toy Drive which will end December 14th.

It is our hope to surpass last year's drive which collected over 400lbs of food to the non-profit 'Feeding San Diego'. Our food donations fed over 350 needy families. 220 toys for the Marine Corp Toys for Tots were donated as well, which we received the US Marine Corp Reserve Commander's Award.

2017 Chinese New Year Fundraising Banquet

This Chinese New Year we will be celebrating the 'Year of the Dog'.

While it is a time for celebration for the community, it is also a fundraising event for our school with the proceeds going toward paying for school supplies, the teachers and staff and offset field trips.

We invite you to join us at this year's fundraising event on February 10th, 2018 at 5:00pm with entertainment by Elvis impersonator Loyd Aron.
