Chinese New Year Fundraising Virtual Celebration

This year on February 12th, the Chinese School of San Diego and Balboa Park's House of China have partnered to present a half-hour Chinese New Year fundraising virtual celebration on YouTube. Programs included lion dancing, Chinese dancing, cooking demonstration, Chinese music instrument performance and crafts. In addition, we had our auction online.

Congratulation to all the prize winners. We thank all our donors and sponsors for their generosity. Our first online event would not be a great success without all your generous support. Thank you very much!

Southern California Council of Chinese School (SCCCS) Online Teacher Training

This year, the Southern California Council of Chinese Schools (SCCCS) held the Spring Teacher Training online. The training was on February 14th and February 21st, 2021. Six of our school teachers and staff attended the training. There were approximately 250 teachers from various Chinese schools who attended this training.

Most of the topics were focused on how to use the online teaching tools and make the online classes interesting. The speakers share their experiences on using games, crafts, songs, and role-playing to make the classes more fun. They also encouraged teachers using songs, crafts, and games to explain some abstract concepts such as Chinese literature, Chinese poems, and Chinese culture.

Assembly Topic on Cooking

Since we do not have cooking classes this school year, our teacher Ms. Yali from the children's class prepared the assembly topic on making Mapo Tofu. Parents and students can try making it together at home!

Next School Year Plan

We were planning to open physically next school year. The school is working on the COVID-19 protocols to ensure it's safe for students to attend the classes on campus.
